BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE BRITISH OUARTERLY REVIEWS. Premiums to New Subscribers.

OWING to the late revolutions and counter-revo-lutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in quick succession, and of which the "end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of inter-est hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. The American Publishers, therefore, deem it proper to call renewed attention to these Periodicals, and the very low price at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig and Radical—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review" Whig; and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is con-
